One of the most eagerly anticipated showpieces at The Daily Telegraph/House & Garden Fair is the 'house' created by members of the Interior Decorators and Designers Association, which provides a showcase for the very best and the very latest decorating ideas. This year, eight IDDA members have created a 'pavilion' split into eight intriguing spaces.

It's a new 'house' that's been created by eight of the very best interior designers in the country. The 'pavilion' is a showcase for the very best and the very latest decorating ideas. This year, eight IDDA members have created a 'pavilion' split into eight intriguing spaces.
